In Memoriam

Robert Rippeteau

Memories of Robert Rippeteau will linger long in the minds of students in future years. Bob, who was a sophomore last year, was killed in a flash flood in Hays on May 22.

Perpetual memory has been added to the library in the form of a browsing nook. Books of both music and dramatics have been placed in the nook and at the request of Mrs. L. D. Wooster, Bob's mother, two cups have been added on which the name's of outstanding musical and dramatic students will be placed each year.

Bob's musical talent was unlimited. Because of his ability to play the clarinet, harp, and saxophone, he belonged to many instrumental groups. His baritone voice was combined with others in many vocal groups.

In the field of dramatics, Bob played leading roles in forensic and school plays. He was also a member of the debate squad.

Truly Bob, as a member of Hays High, has left his footprints on the sands of time.

Enjoying the memorial nook were Maria Cherner, Eugene Gross, Carl Wells, Juliene McCartney, Anna Lu McFarlin and Wesley Zavodsky who were members of the Rippeteau Memorial Committee. Others who served on the committee were Mrs. L. D. Wooster, Bob's mother, Mrs. Miriam Perry, Miss Doris Starliper, Forrest Davidson, A. K. Massey, Glenn Matthews, C. U. Phillips, and C. W. Rothgeb.

Lives of these men leave imprints on the students.

During the years serving as superintendent of schools, Clyde U. Phillips gave many hours in the promotion of education. Even though not personally acquainted with all the students, there were many days, however, that they welcomed Mr. Phillips' ride to school. Under his direction the schools have made rapid progress in providing better education facilities for the youth of Hays.

The Men Who Work Behind the Scenes

Under the capable hands of the Board of Education, our school steadily advanced this year. The members were Charlie Mann, E. B. Simpson, Jack Drees, Paul Ward president, Clyde U. Phillips, clerk, E. J. Dreining, vice-president and William Toepfer.

A. K. Massey

Whenever there was a movie to be shown, you could be sure A. K. Massey would be there to run the projector. Since he was the junior high principal, social science teacher, director of visual education, Mr. Massey had a full schedule. Through the years of teaching in Hays High, he has made friends with many students in both junior and senior high.

Clyde W. Rothgeb, principal of senior high, was always helpful, friendly and willing to advise the students of the school. The curriculum expanded and the enrollment grew to bulging capacity under the direction of Mr. Rothgeb. He also took an active interest in the welfare of the community.

Directors Who Make the Plans Materialize

Mrs. Lucille Flickinger instructed instrumental groups and gave private lessons, but she spent most of her time in working with grade school children.

Mrs. Gladys Shaw, new to the school system, did much to enlarge the health program. The students found her a willing adviser.

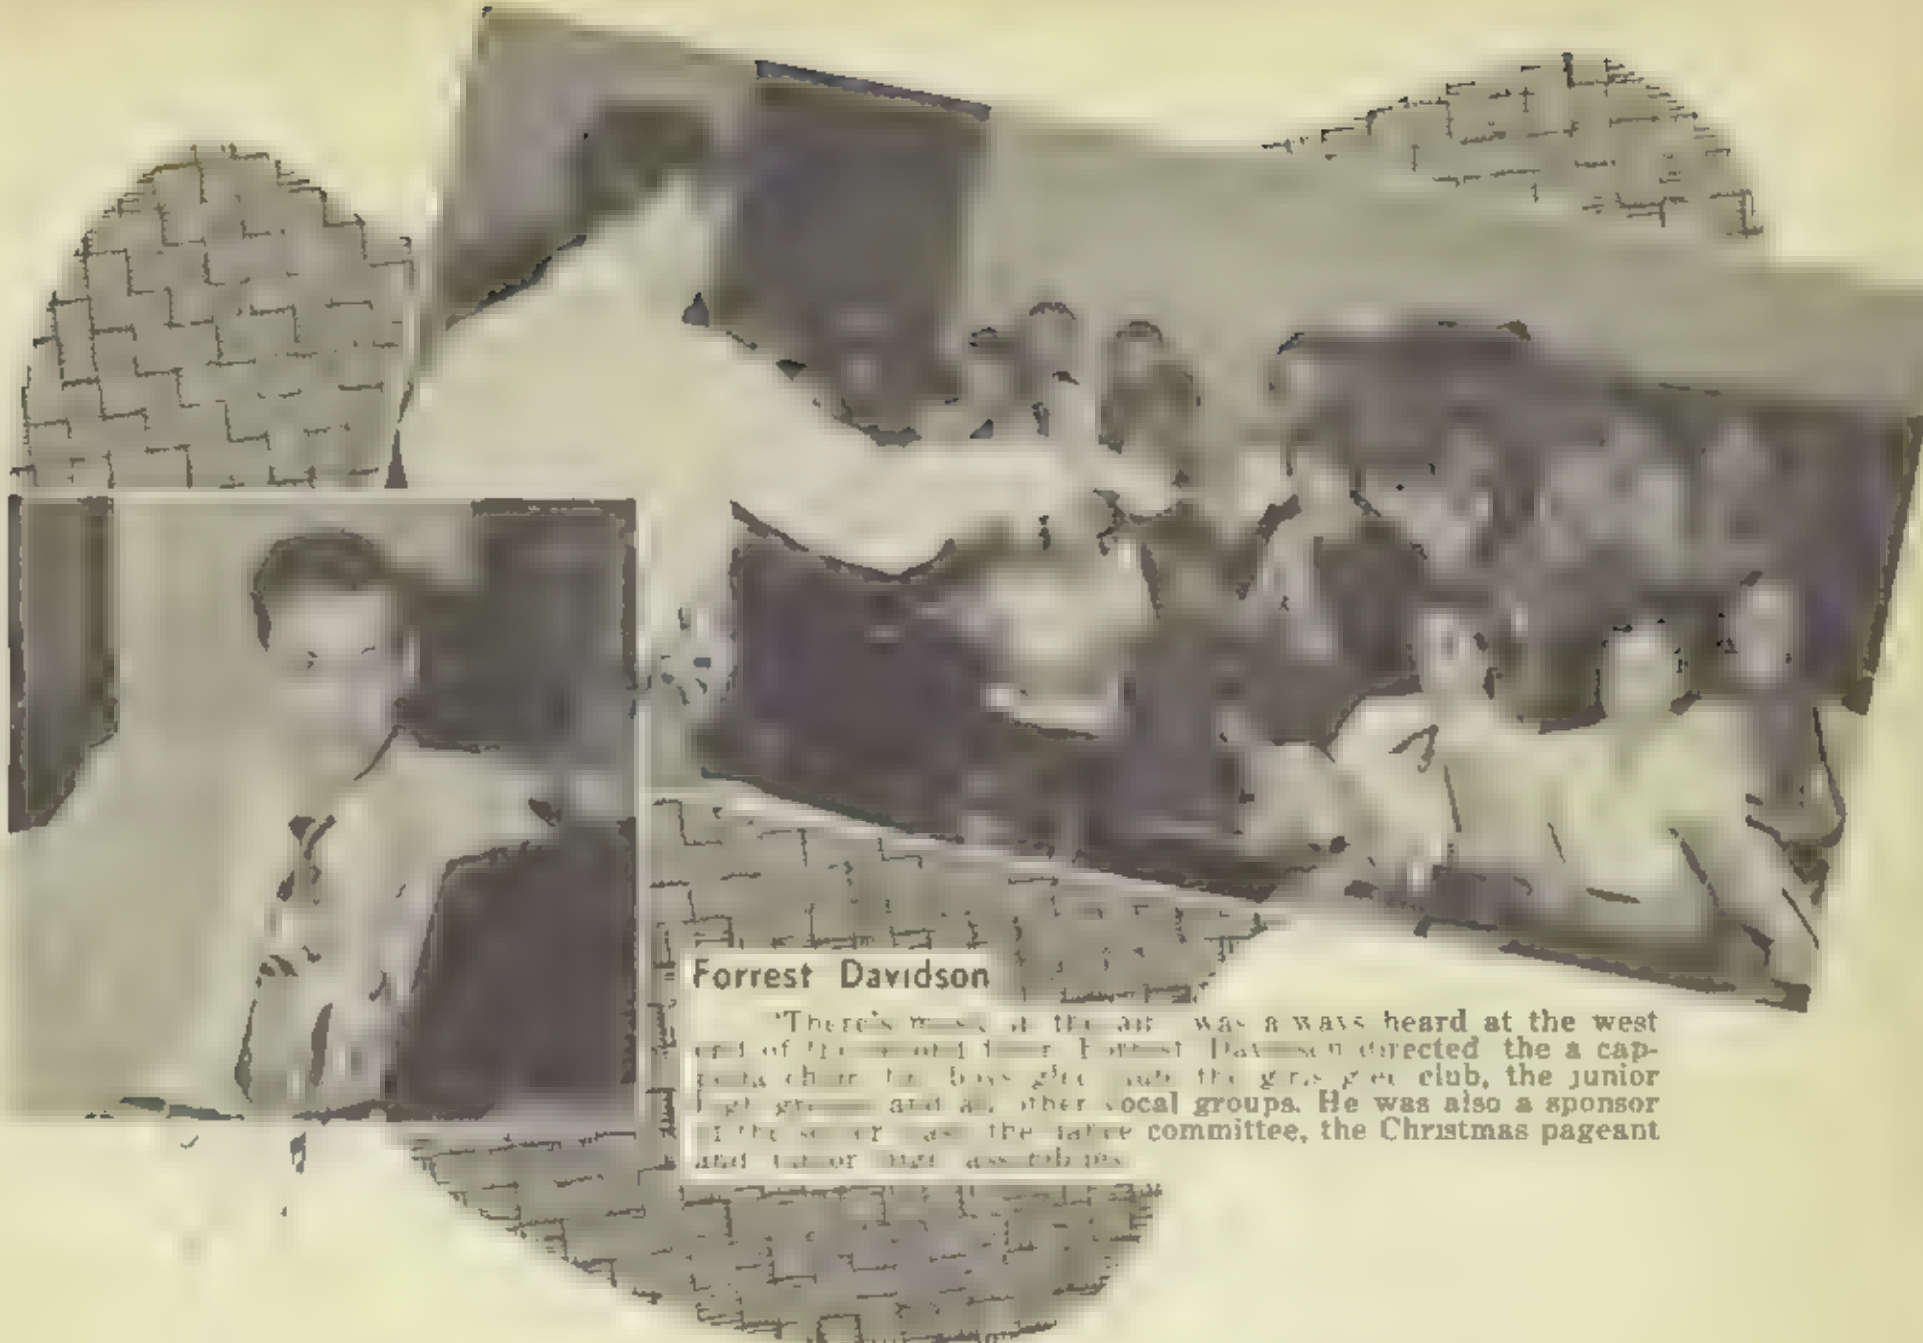

Mrs. Dorothy Stephens, Misses Alta Nulton and Lorene Rohr, played an important part in the operation of the school. They were always willing to help the students with their minor troubles. Dorothy, secretary to the superintendent, kept the books for the Board of Education. Alta, secretary to the principal, served as registrar and kept the activity books. Lorene, general stenographer, acted the nurse with records and ~~the~~ kept school records of the students.

Efficient Operation Requires Records and Buildings

In order for the school to be more efficiently run, the custodians were always on the job—sweeping floors, regulating room temperatures, repairing fixtures and many other odd jobs. The staff included Clarence Miller, chauffeur of the school bus; Charles Seitz, on night duty, Harlan Miller, Alois Miller, head custodian.

Forrest Davidson

There's music in the air - was always heard at the west end of the school. Forrest Davidson directed the a cappella choir, the boys glee club, the glee club, the junior high choir, and all other vocal groups. He was also a sponsor of the senior class, the dance committee, the Christmas pageant and other school activities.

Directed Activities Make Learning Easy

Glen Howerton

Glen Howerton

In order to understand modern art, Glen Howerton had his seventh grade art class draw designs. He sponsored the senior class art club and the art club. Any time a poster or painting was made, Mr. Howerton always came to the school.

Frederick Venditti

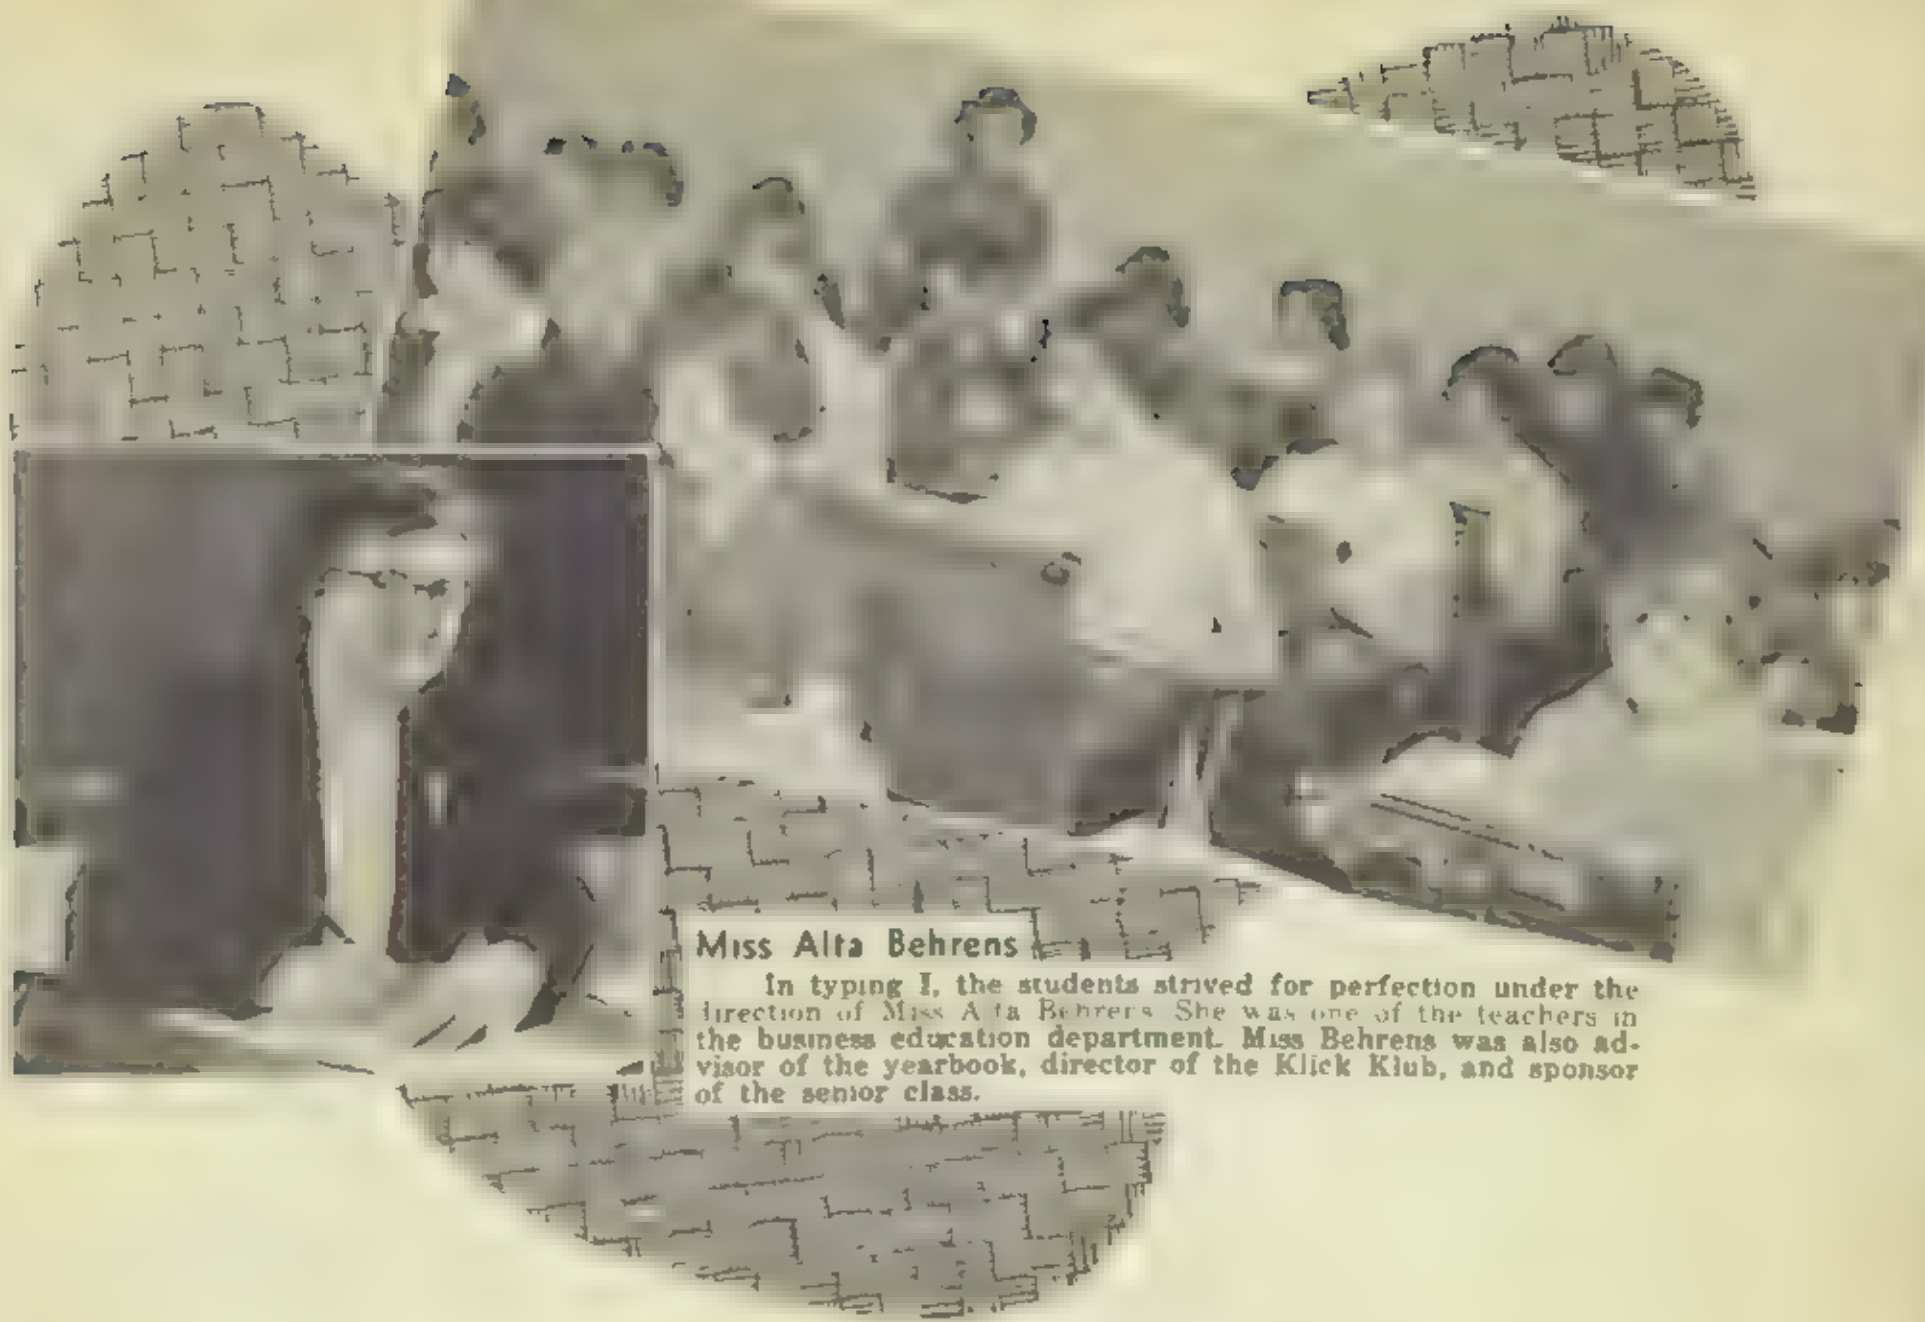

To develop speech and personality, debate was taught in Hays High by Frederick Venditti. He also sponsored the KAY club and headed with the boys assemblies. Mr. Venditti was the student counselor, taught American history, and helped sponsor the senior class.

Music and Debate Develop Leadership

Glenn W. Matthews

With the help of the students, Glenn W. Matthews gave out with 100 beats, any kind of wanted. Besides keeping a full instrumental program going, Mr. Matthews sponsored the ninth grade, the pep club, the dance band, and helped with the Christmas pageant. Any other program where instruments were it, he helped play a part with.

Miss Alta Behrens

In typing I, the students strived for perfection under the direction of Miss Alta Behrens. She was one of the teachers in the business education department. Miss Behrens was also advisor of the yearbook, director of the Klick Klub, and sponsor of the senior class.

Business Skills Provide Job Opportunities

Miss Alpha Elting

In order to balance books the bookkeeping class under the direction of Miss Alpha Elting checked their work together. Miss Elting who taught business classes also helped with the girls' assemblies. This year she was president of the Hays City Teachers Association.

Miss Hilma Shuss

Of all the activities of the tenth grade girls' gym class under the direction of Miss Hilma Shuss, basketball was the most popular. Other activities were basketball, badminton, and tennis. Miss Shuss, girls' physical education instructor, sponsored Girls' Athletic Association, pep club and assisted on the dance committee.

Hilma Shuss

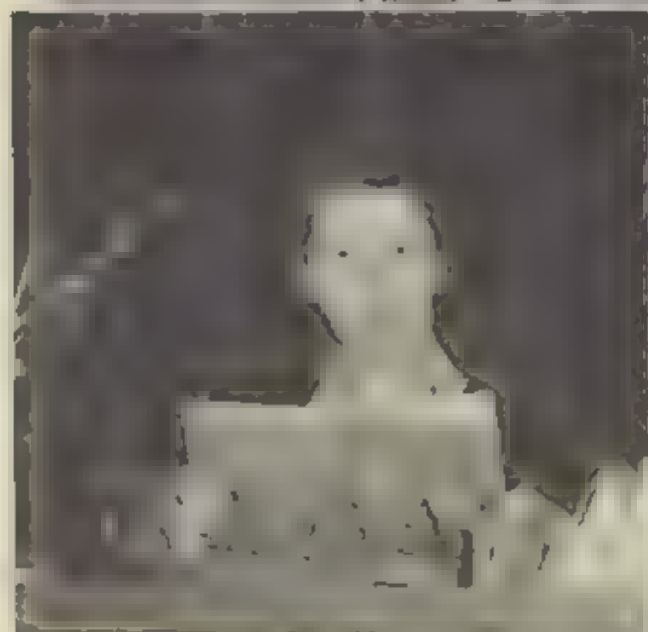

Health and Safety Come First in Life

Robert Blazer

Hays High students were privileged to enroll in driver training under the supervision of Robert Blazer. With the increased rate of traffic accidents, no course was more timely. 'Bob' also coached golf and boys' tennis as well as assisted with junior high athletics.

Mrs. Miriam Perry

In order to get a better understanding of ballads, the junior class of Mrs. Miriam Perry listened to recordings. She taught Spanish as well as the junior English classes. Mrs. Perry sponsored the junior class and the Thespians, she also directed the junior class play and the Christmas pageant.

English is the Basis of Expression

Miss Gladys Kraus

Oral and written English were both stressed in the ninth grade English classes under the direction of Miss Gladys Kraus, head of the English department. She sponsored the Gaudin and helped with the executive board. Miss Kraus was elected the delegate to State Delegate Assembly of the Kansas Teachers Association.

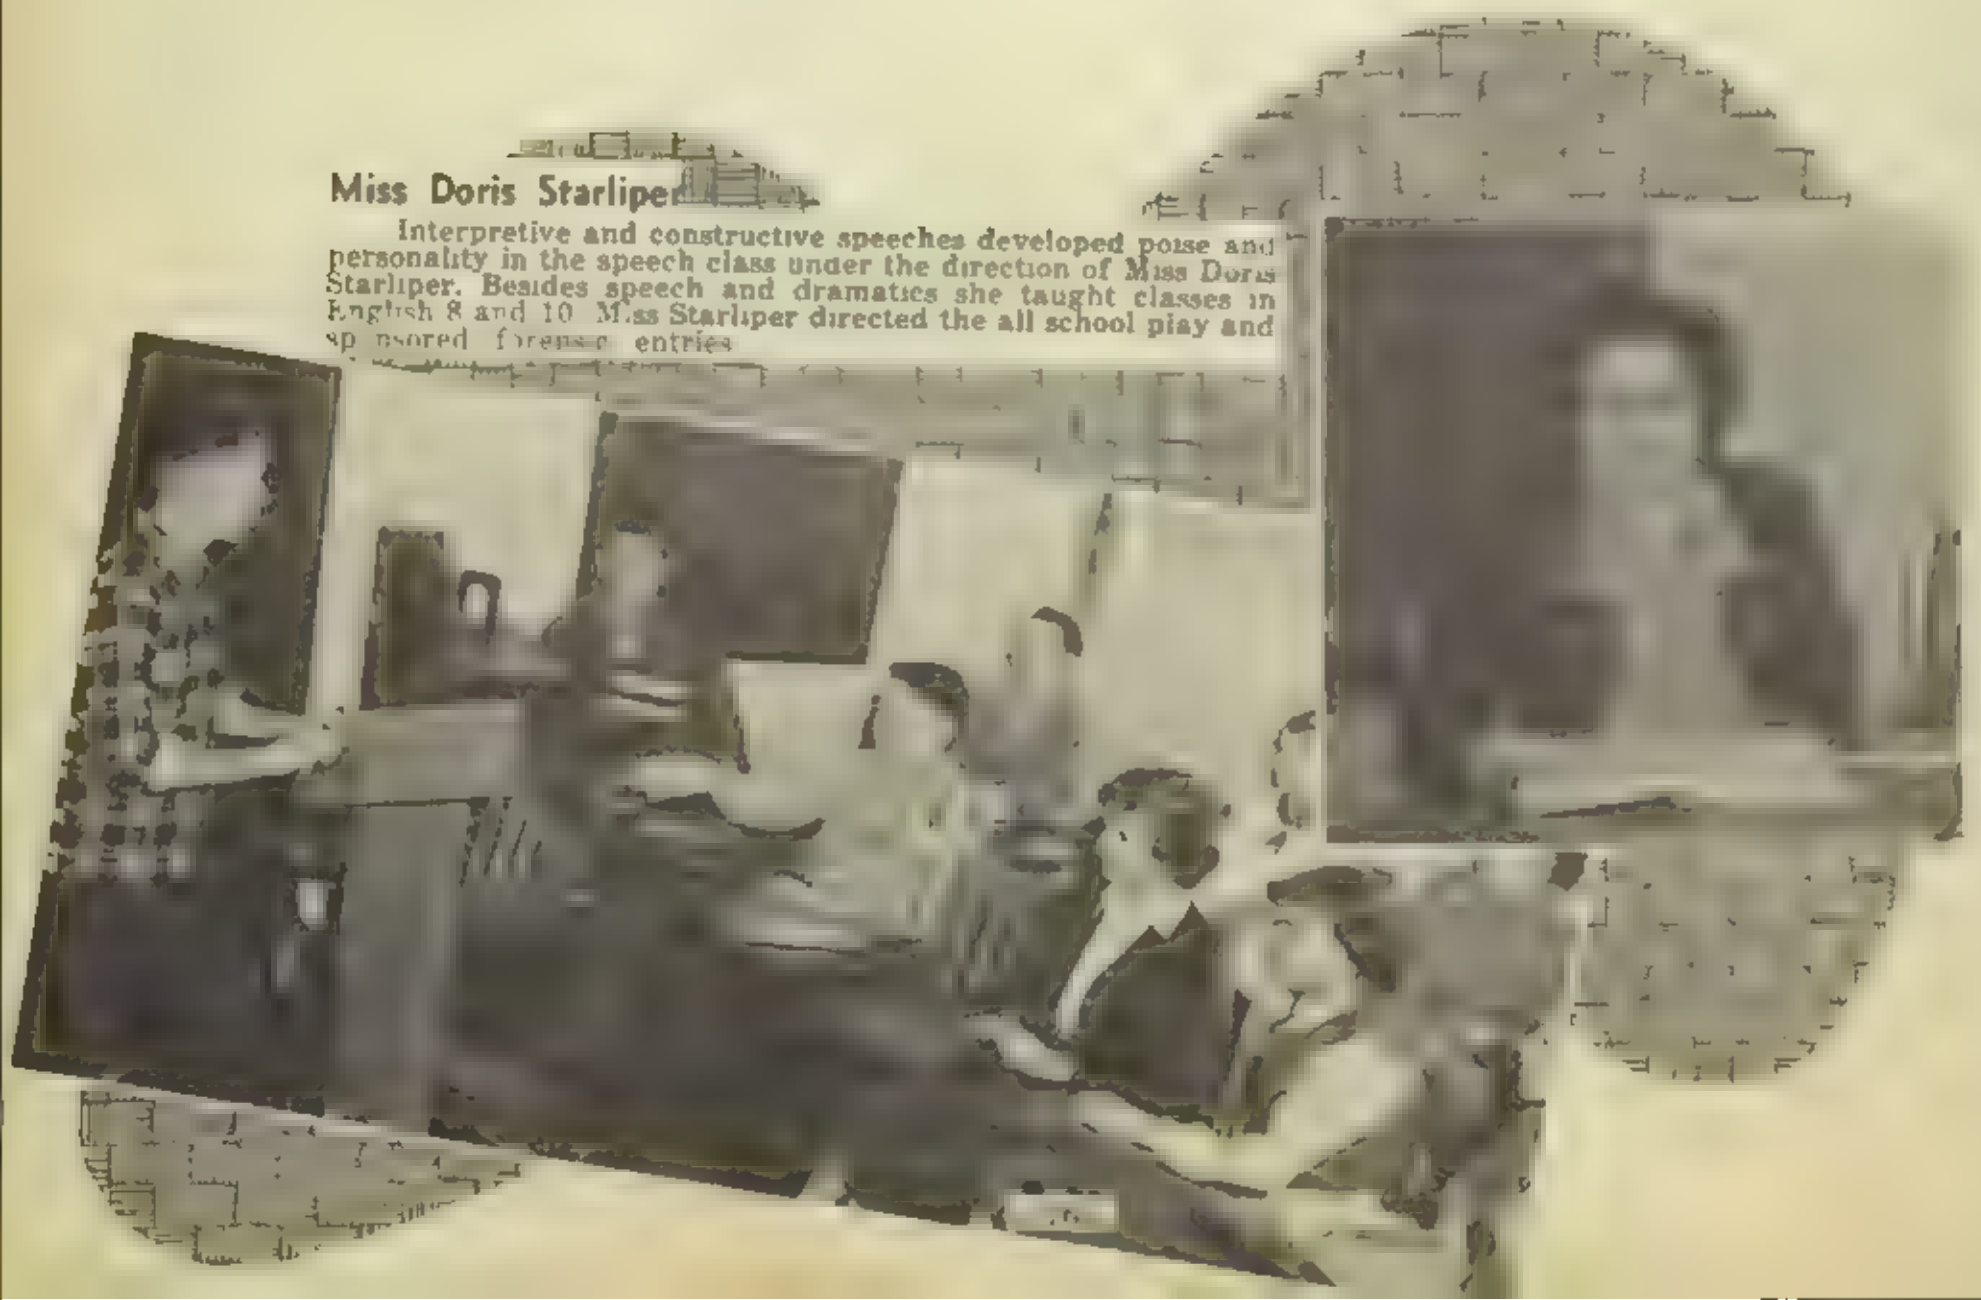

Mrs. Helen Hundley

For living in future years, Mrs. Helen Hundley's sophomore English classes discussed several topics on social behavior. They also wrote autobiographies which were added to the permanent files in the office. Mrs. Hundley taught Latin and sponsored the Junior Classical League and the sophomore class.

Written and Oral English are Important

Miss Doris Starliper

Interpretive and constructive speeches developed poise and personality in the speech class under the direction of Miss Doris Starliper. Besides speech and dramatics she taught classes in English 8 and 10. Miss Starliper directed the all school play and sponsored foreign entries.

Miss Blanche Bloxom

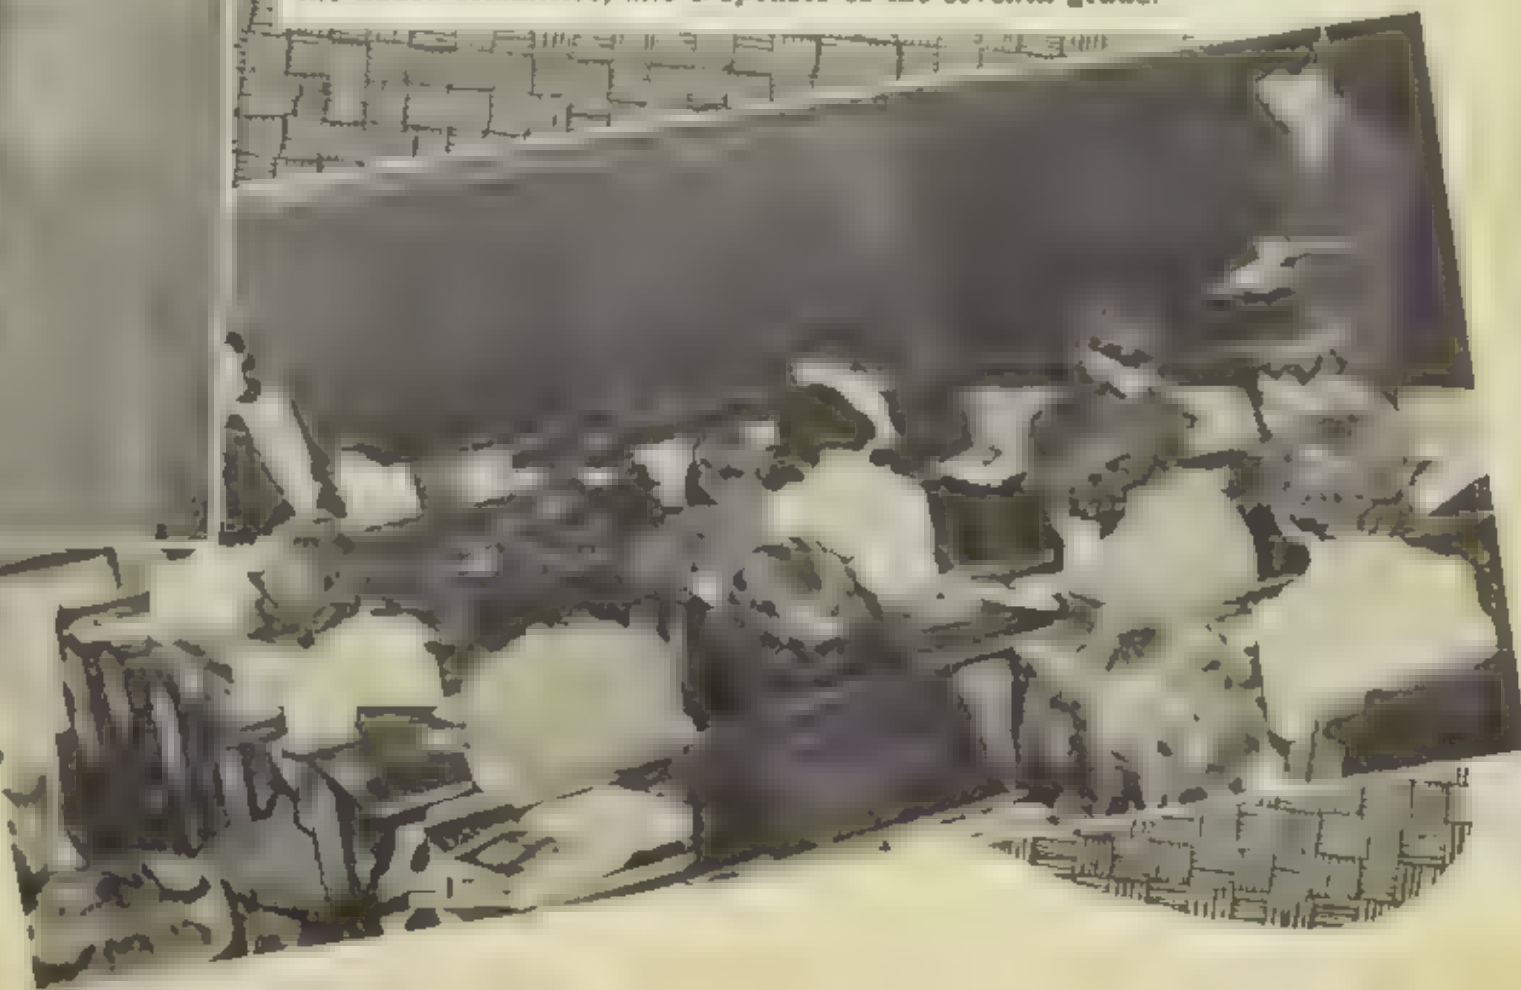

After the students have had a busy day there was one place for quiet study, the library under the supervision of Miss Blanche Bloxom who was always willing to help students with research. She sponsored the courtesy committee and helped with the girls' assemblies.

Reading Books Builds Vocabularies

John Sipe

The seventh grade English class, under the direction of John Sipe, recited poetry to help develop an appreciation for literature. Mr. Sipe, seventh and eighth grade English instructor, was the coach for the junior high boys' athletics, a sponsor of the dance committee, and a sponsor of the seventh grade.

Harold C. Elder

The peculiar odors that came from third floor probably originated from Harold C. Elder's chemistry class. Mr. Elder was in charge of biological and physical science classes. He also was chairman of the junior class.

Science Provides for a Higher Level of Living

Arthur Leas

The tenth grade boys' physical education class under the direction of physical education teacher, Arthur Leas, did calisthenics to build strong healthy bodies. 'Art', basketball coach, also helped with football and track. He sponsored the traffic squad, helped with the H. club and sponsored the freshman class.

Dennis McKee

To become better acquainted with machinery, the senior high boys took general shop under the direction of Dennis McKee. "Mac" was football coach and assisted with basketball and track. He also taught mechanical drawing and other shop classes as well as directed intramurals and helped sponsor the H Club.

Shopwork Develops Useable Skills

Robert Britton

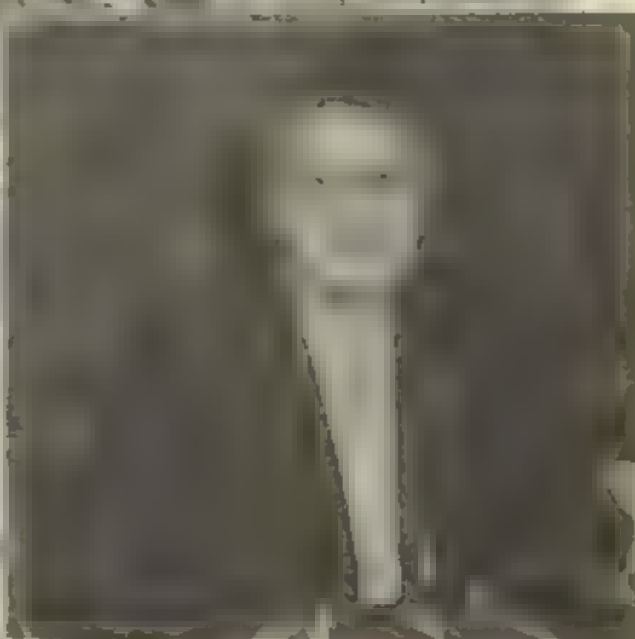

In order to finish their projects in wood, the members of the industrial arts class consulted with their instructor, Robert Britton. He had charge of all industrial art classes. Mr. Britton also helped sponsor the freshman class.

Mrs. Ruth Harris

Arith-O was the game used by Mrs. Ruth Harris' eighth grade mathematics class to drill on the fundamental processes. Mrs. Harris taught junior high mathematics, sponsored the Junior Indian Maidens and directed the junior high play.

Ruth Harris

Problem Solving Provokes Thought

Miss Marie Brown

The use of the blackboard was common in the ninth grade algebra class taught by Miss Marie Brown. She also taught higher mathematics and assisted with Girls' Athletic Association.

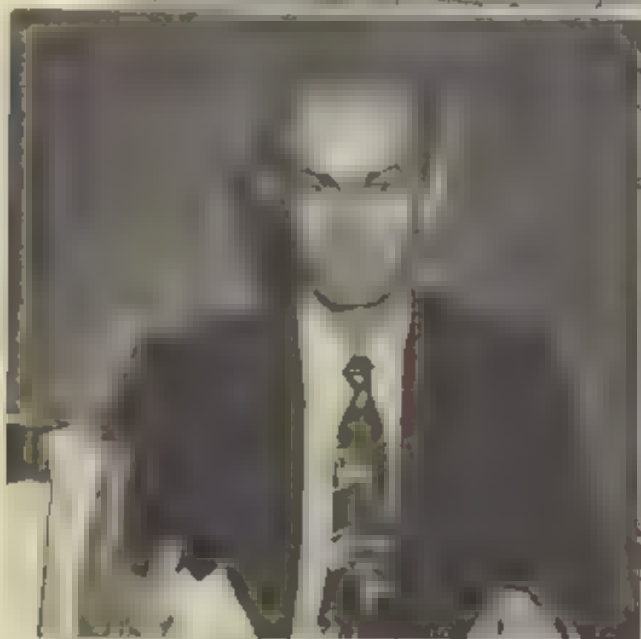

Miss Darlenne Thompson

The constitution class, under the direction of Miss Darlenne Thompson, prepared their lesson for the next day. Miss Thompson, a social science instructor, found herself putting in many extra hours as chairman of the active dance committee.

Studying Social Science Develops Citizens

Elmer Johnson

To be better citizens, the eighth grade class, under the direction of Elmer Johnson, studied the history of United States. "Jack", social science instructor, also coached track, taught a class in boys' physical education and helped with basketball and football. H Club members looked to Jack for guidance.

Miss Kathryn Ratzloff

Baking apple pie was the lesson in Miss Kathryn Ratzloff's ninth grade home economics class. She taught all home economics classes, sponsored the Hays High Homemakers as well as helped with the junior class. If the occasion called for food, Miss Ratzloff was always there.

Vocational Classes Make Better Homes

Thaine Clark

Testing soil was just one of the projects undertaken in vocational agriculture III which was under the direction of Thaine Clark. He taught all the vocational agriculture classes as well as devoted much of his time to the activities of the Future Farmers of America.

1952

D. A. R.

Anna Lu McFarlin, senior, was named Hays High school's good citizen of the year. She represented the school in the good citizenship contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The qualifications—dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism—were the bases of the selection. "Annie" who capably met these requirements was also active in extra-curricular work, with journalism taking first place and dramatics second. She was editor of the Guidon, student sponsor of the journalism club, advertising editor of the yearbook, a member of Quill and Scroll, and a member of Thespians. Besides all of these organization "Annie" found time to keep up her class work and take part in other social activities.

A. A. U. W.

Since 1927 the Hays branch of the American Association University Women has awarded the senior girl who is considered the most outstanding in scholarship, character and service, a lovely dictionary as a symbol of the association's policy, continuous education. This year Juliene McCartney was selected to receive this award.

Friendly and helpful Juliene was active in journalism and student government. This year she was editor of the Indian Call, advertising manager of the Guidon, a member of Quill and Scroll, and for the past two years has been secretary of the student council. She was also a member of Thespians and took an active part in music.

The senior girls having an average of "B" or better were entertained at the A. A. U. W. tea in April. The following were guests this year: Frieda Jane Albrecht, Barbara Balls, Connie Converse, Roberta Jacobs, Juliene McCartney, Anna Lu McFarlin, Jen Ellen Neff, Jean Powell, Connie Scoby, and Shirley Stapp.

Indian Call Prince and Princess

For the past five years the Indian Call has sponsored the election for an Indian Call prince and princess. Subscribers of the yearbook voted for any senior girl or boy.

Reigning over the Indian Call dance this year were industrious Julene McCartney and amiable Norman Pfeifer, elected for their personality. Norman, who was president of the student body, was also active in all sports. Julene took an active part in journalism and music.

Both the reigning Prince and Princess have left their footprints in Hays High.

Dean Kobler, vice president of class of '52, and Billie Bertram entered the ship for a formal evening aboard.

THE JOLLY

The class of '51 and faculty climbed aboard the Jolly Roger on April 26 as she nosed her way out of port for a lovely pleasure cruise. Captain Clair Law, master of ceremonies, took over the helm during the banquet. Invocation was led by A. K. Massey. Roberta Jacobs, junior class president, offered a toast "Anchors Aweigh," to start the jolly voyage. Jack Earl, president of the senior class, replied with "Ship Ahoy." Anna Lu McFarlin took over the "Treasure Hunt" and Janie Gagelman helped explore the "Jolly Roger." "Land

QUEEN OF '51

A snake dance down main street started the Homecoming festivities of 1951 on the evening of October 31. The Hays High band led the candidates and students to the huge bon fire where the fighting spirit of the Indians were aroused. The evening highlight occurred when Jennie Bertram was crowned Queen of '51 at half-time of the Hays High-Russell game. Jennie and her attendants were escorted to the dance at the high school where the alumni of Hays High were invited guests.

FRIENDLIEST STUDENTS

A smile, a "rowdy", and a sincere interest in humanity described the three seniors elected as the Friendliest Havs High students.

An all around school activity model girl was Anna Lu McFarlin, loading her talents primarily to journalism and dramatics.

Norman Pfeifer, president of student council, was never too busy to offer a helping hand to his committee members. He was always an active participant in sports.

Sports and dramatics claimed the time of Kermit Welch. His extra time was spent working on the sports section of the school paper.

For the past six years, the Guidon has ordered a poll of the student body to determine the friendliest students in connection with the friendship edition of the school paper.

JUNIOR ROTARIANS

1952

For the past ten years, senior boys of Hays High have had the privilege of being chosen a Junior Rotarian for one of the school months. These boys were selected for their leadership in class and school activities, their sportsmanship, and outstanding personalities.

Each boy attended the regular Rotarian luncheon every Monday noon for the month that he represented Hays High. This gave the boys an opportunity to meet with the men of Hays and to become civic minded. For the last two years the student council elected the Junior Rotarians.

This year Hans Lundgaard, from Oslo, Norway, was an honorary member for the whole year. The Rotary Club was one of the local organizations that brought Hans to Hays.

The Junior Rotarians for this year were: Honorary, Hans Lundgaard; October, Norman Pfeifer; November, Dean Kobler; December, Richard Baker; January, Kermit Welch; February, Cap Middlekauff; March, Leroy Augustine; April, Vernon Berland; and May, Clair Law.

Music Students Promote Good Will

The vocal music groups, under the direction of Forrest Davidson, have done their part in entertaining and building good will.

The members of the music department traveled to Russell and Great Bend giving exchange concerts, and sang before the service clubs in Hays.

The vocal Spring Concert, an annual affair, was open to the public as well as the student body.

No competitive team ever put in more hours of practice than did the music groups entered in the Spring Festival, an annual activity of the state activities association.

The presentation of a folk opera was a new activity added to the music department. The music activities ended for the year with the a cappella choir singing at baccalaureate and commencement.

Band Presents Varied Program

Clad in the traditional maroon and gold uniforms, the band added their backing to school activities by playing for assemblies, pep rallies, and gave concerts of their own.

Football fans will long remember the numerous formations worked out by the marching band, led by the strutting majorettes and drum major. Enthusiastic members also formed a dance band which added to the rhythm of the school dances and a pep band which stirred up pep at the basketball games.

The concert band gave two exchange concerts, one with Russell and the other with Larned. The organization participated in the district music festival, the annual Spring Concert, and was host for Fort Hays State band day.

Orchestra Gives Appreciation To Music Program

The lone orchestra this year in northwestern Kansas was the Hays High organization. Under the direction of Glenn W. Matthews and Mrs. Lucille Flickinger, the orchestra brought greater enjoyment and appreciation of music to both students and patrons.

Giving two concerts in the high school auditorium and one exchange concert at Garden City were only a small part of the work of the orchestra. Their task included playing for the Kansas State Teachers Association, studying with the string quartet clinic of Wichita University, playing for the district music festival and participating in the state music festival in Hays.

By furnishing music at commencement, the Hays High orchestra ended their season with much to their credit.

Word Wranglers Travel For Meets

The debaters attended tournaments at Hutchinson and Russell and also two district meetings. The question for the year was—Resolved: That all American Citizens should be subject to conscription for essential services in time of war.

Early in the year, the debaters listened to demonstration debates which were put on by experienced college and high school students. Frederick Venditti coached this year's debate squad.

Royalynn Law paid close attention as Carl Wells delivered rebuttal

Coach Frederick Venditti and members of the debate team—Jean Powell, Charles Evans, Carl Wells and Royalynn Law—smiled happily as they planned to leave for the district meet at Fort Hays State

Quintet Place High In Forensic Meet

The highlight of the year for students interested in speech and dramatics was the district speech contest held March 15 at Fort Hays State college. These students also attended the West Central Kansas league forensic festival at Dodge City on February 27.

Students competing in the individual entries were: Carl Wells, who gave the humorous reading, "Taming of the Shrew"; Bill Rhoades, who gave a humorous reading, "Buring To Sing"; Marilyn Mermis, who gave an informative speech, "Racial Segregation"; Jean Powell, who gave an informative speech, "A Challenge to Public School System"; and Kay Hinkhouse, who gave the dramatic reading, "The Other Wise Man."

The high ratings received by this quintet brought more honors to Hays High and credit to Miss Doris Starliper, speech and dramatic coach.

Starring in Sky Road

Kermit Welch

Marilyn Mosier

Clair Law

Anna Lu McFarlin

Charles Evans

Marthann Burris

The completed cast included these people: Winifred Fellers, Royalynn Law, Wesley Zavodsky, Margot Lindner, Marilyn Mermis, Carl Wells, Kay Hinkhouse, Bill Rhoades and Jean Powell

Members of the production staff were: Miss Doris Starliper, director; Norman Pfeifer, assistant stage manager; Gerald Chadd, sound effects; Norman McIntosh, stage manager and Robert Evans, technician.

Suspense held the audience as the all school play, Sky Road, unraveled the trials and tribulations that exist at an airport, before a full house in the high school auditorium on November 31.

The plot was evolved around the early days of airplane transportation when there was a shortage of pilots, and superintendents found it necessary to use every available stranger in order to keep the planes in the air.

The romance which developed between the air stewardesses and pilots climaxed the successful play. The three-act comedy by N. Richard Nausbaum was directed by Miss Doris Starliper.

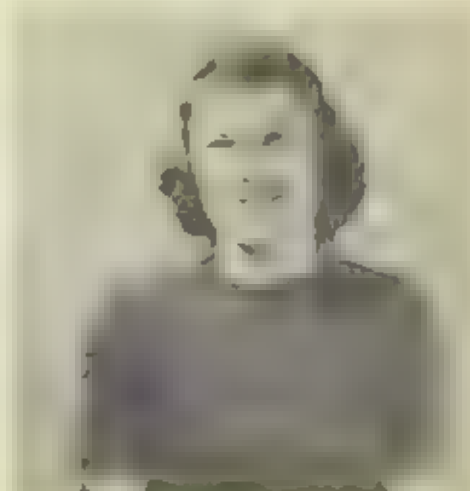

Starring in The Bishop's Mantle

Juanita Kohler

Eugene Gross

Polly Palmer

Virginia Ward

Charles Evans

Marlyn Mosier

The completed cast included these people: Standing: Wesley Wikoff and Albert Neylon. Seated: Rossie Jensen, Phyllis Needles, Betty Schnatterly and Earl Rogers.

A play with tension, plenty of humor and the inspirational power of a good man in a tough fight produced the atmosphere of the junior class play, The Bishop's Mantle, before a full house in the high school auditorium on March 27.

Problems, big and little, confronted the new rector of the St. Matthew's Church—a cold reception from the sexton, a happy-go-lucky brother who invests money foolishly, a beautiful fiance afraid to be the wife of a minister. These are the major problems of the new minister.

With its malicious attack, all the contentions within the play were brought to a climax, as Hilary—with outcome uncertain—stood foursquare in the struggle for his ideas and the woman he loved.

The three-act play by Marion L. Johnson was directed by Mrs. Miriam Perry.

Members of the production staff were: Alberta Sistrup, prompter, Jayne Withers, ticket taker, Wendell Jensen, properties, Linda McDowell, program, Alice Davis, publicity, Sam Johnson, stage manager, Virginia Hegsett, publicity and Mrs. Miriam Perry, director.

Starring in Quiz Me Again

Barbara Richards

Terry Hopkins

Sue Suran

Mary Lee Powell

Mike Francis

Barbara Fellers

The completed cast included these people: Marilyn McCartney, Mary Penn Venneberg, Jeffrey Reynolds, Tommy Gillmore.

Members of the production staff were: Edna Jane Butler, business manager; Sandra Hopkins, prompter; Mrs. Ruth Harris, director; Louise Walburn, property manager; Carl Hart, prompter; Don Stanley, stage manager.

A comedy production, Quiz Me Again, was put on by junior high members before a full house in the high school auditorium on April 25.

"Radio! Radio! I hate them!" shouted father Lomax and rightly so for Suzan listened instead of studying, his wife listened instead of cooking, Mary listened instead of working and Launce listened instead of exercising. Father took his turn at listening also. He lost a big order because his phone was tied up by a long distance phone call from a radio quiz show. However, after domestic experience and the rest of the family acting as bread winners, the tables were turned when Mr. Lomax received a call from Chicago telling him that his firm got the order for 15,000 cabinets. Even though a give-away program offered him $50,000 Mr. Lomax was glad to get back as the head of the household.

The three-act comedy by John Henderson was directed by Mrs. Ruth Harris.

Starring in Down in the Valley

"Down in the valley,
Valley so low,
Hang your head over,
Hear the wind blow!"

produced the atmosphere for the folk opera by Kurt Weill, presented by the music department, under the direction of Forrest Davidson, on February 28.

Brack Weaver played by Albert Neylon was sentenced to die on the gallows, because he had killed Thomas Bouche, played by Dean Kobler, over the affection of his sweetheart Jennie Parsons, played by Gwendolyn Wynne. Since Brack had not heard from Jennie he escaped from the Birmingham jail to find out why she had not written. He finds that her father, portrayed by Kermit Welch had forbidden it. The narrator of the story, Eugene Gross, kept the audience informed of the progress. The preacher, Charles Evans, the guard, Clair Law, and the fellow prisoner, Bill Rhoades, the square dancers of Shadow Creek, the chorus, the orchestra, rehearsed by Glenn Mathews, and the production crew, Marilyn Ostrom, Norman McIntosh, Gerald Pfeifer, Dean Neal and Gene Meseke, combined to make the presentation of Hays High's first opera a success.

"I'll always love you, Brack," replied Jennie, to Brack's pleadings.

"I'll see you Saturday night, Jennie," said Brack as he left Jennie before the door where Pa and the villain, Thomas Bouche, were seated.

"Be ready for the Lord," shouted the preacher to his congregation at the meetin'.

Brack, in the Birmingham jail, was guarded closely.

"Come all you people, I'll sing of Brack Weaver," led the narrator and the members of the chorus listened to the tale. Sopranos: Frieda Jane Albrecht, Royalynn Law, Barbara Ball, Connie Scoby, Carolyn Sauer, Ruth Kirtland, Betty Jo Debes, Marie Elder, Jackie True, Bette Rhoades, Marie Berland, Royalan Grubb, Tharen Banister, Mary Ann Weigel, Jayne Witt, Alfrieda Rohr, Jean Powers, Virginia Hogsett, Bernadine Hammersmith. S P O R T S

Sportsmen leave behind them tokens of battles won.

Coach Jack Johnson was ready to start Don Pelzel and Keith Hansen in the medley relay.

Trackmen Tie for First at State

The limelight flew in all directions when the fieldmen of Hays High tied with Stafford for the State Class A championship at Wichita on May 18 and 19. Pete Felten beat his own record in the 180 yd. low hurdles by winning the state in 20.4 sec., just 1 10 sec. slower than the state record. The Indian mile relay team—Dennis Smith, Keith Hansen, Pete Felten and Tony Pfeifer—won the state event and also set a new school record of 3 min. 32.5 sec. Tony Pfeifer added another record to the school by throwing the discus 153 ft. 2½ in.

The thinclads weren't up to their usual form for the regional track meet on May 12; however, they earned enough points to place third. Stafford outranked the Indians in the W. C. K. L. by 46½ points on May 5.

The cindermen tied for first place with Hoisington in the Fort Hays relays on April 28. The most thrilling event of the meet was when Pete Felten overcame the 35 yd. lead that the Hoisington mile relay team built up on the first three laps.

The thinclads took first in a triangular between Hays High, Plainville and Cadets on April 21. Coach Jack Johnson took four men—Tony Pfeifer, Pete Felten, Doyle Meade and Keith Hansen—to the K. U. relays on April 21. Tony heaved the discus 146 ft. 6 in. to take first and Pete's placing in both high and low hurdles won the Indians fourth place in the meet.

On April 12, Hays placed first in their invitational field and track meet. On March 29 in a meet by mail conducted by Holton High School the Indians took seven first places.

The Braves started the season by placing second in the Garden City relays on March 31. Doyle Meade tied for first in the high jump with 5 ft. 9 in., which was ¼ in. less than his record for last year.

Another Sport Enters Athletic Program

The brand new sport of golf was added to the Hays High athletic program in '51. Under the direction of Bob Blazer the boys learned to drive, tee and rake the green. The schedule was very light the first year with only two matches both of which were with Plainville. The best score for the year was turned in by J. D. Williams who carded a 96 in 18 holes.

Golf—Clair Law, J. D. Williams, Bud Dalton, Earl Rogers, Dennis Simmons, Bob Blazer, coach.

Warriors Place Third in W.C.K.L.

The Indians got their 1951 football season off to a fine start with a victory of 7-0 over the Minneapolis Lions on September 21. The cold, wet weather revived the passing attacks for both teams. The powerful running attack of the Warriors won the second victory of the season on September 28 by a score of 27-7 at Great Bend.

Pratt edged out the Indians on a cold, damp October 5 night game by a score of 14-7. The Indians' score resulted from a spectacular 47-yard pass play from Keith Swim to end, Lauren Welch in the fourth quarter. On October 12, the Indians wrecked Ellis in an out-of-league game by a score of 46-0.

The powerhouse league winners, Dodge City, were scored upon by the Indians when a fumble was picked up by Lauren Welch. The score ended 27-6 in favor of the Demons on October 19. On another wet field the Indians stopped Stafford with a score of 12-6 on October 26. Heavy hitting fullback, Delbert Sparr led the way to victory, but the wet ball prevented the extra points.

At the homecoming game on October 31, the Indians held up their end of the activities by winning from the Russell Broncos with a score of 21-7. The traditional Armistice Day game with the Cadets was held on November 9; the only afternoon game of the season, resulted in a win of 14-7 for the Warriors.

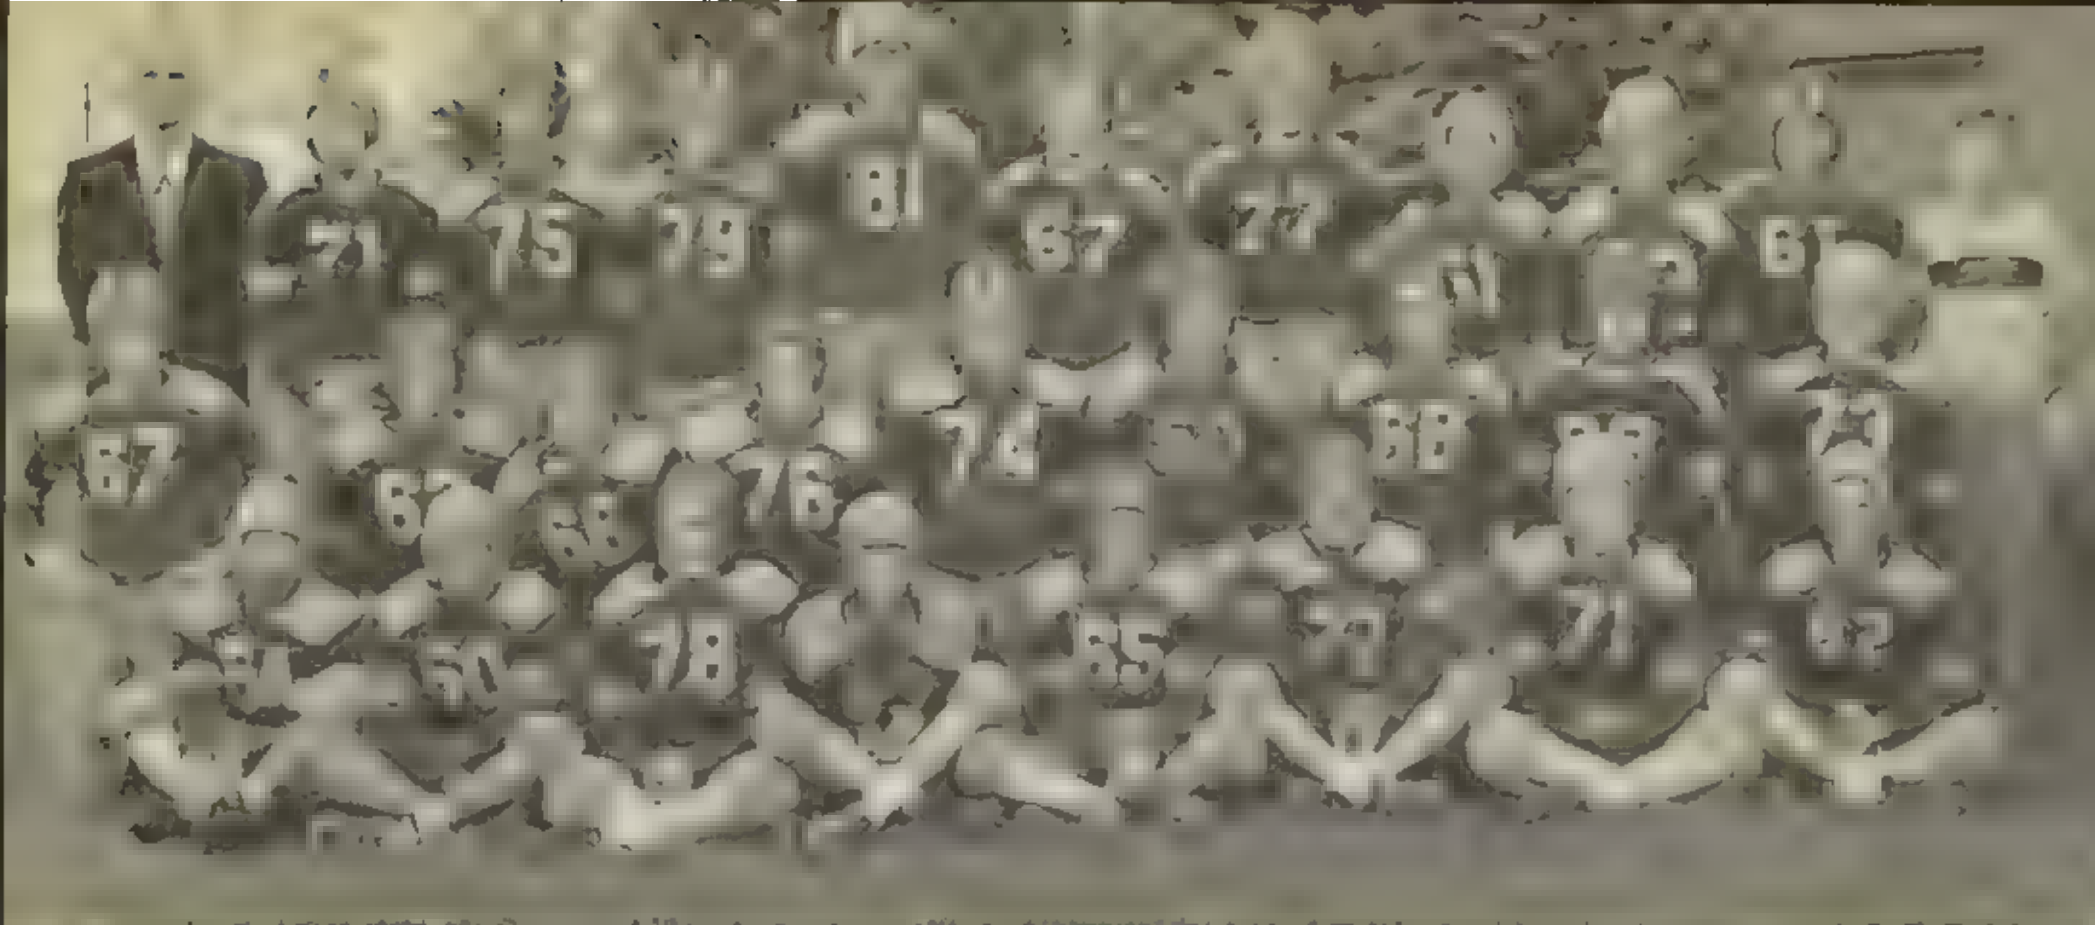

The Indians concluded their season with a trounce over Larned on the cold blustery night of November 16 by a score of 20-7. The season was closed with a record of 7 wins and 2 losses which gave them third place in the West Central Kansas league. Outstanding tackle, Norman McIntosh, was elected as a member of the all state third team.

Papooses Undefeated Again

For two consecutive seasons the 'B' squad football team have been undefeated. Strong defense and aggressive offense were the characteristics that won this title for the papooses. Twenty-six boys, coached by Jack Johnson, were victorious over Russell, 20-0, on Sept. 24; Cadets, 19-0, on Oct. 1; Ellis, 28-0, on Oct. 8; Great Bend, 19-6, on Oct. 15; Cadets, 35-15, on Oct. 22; and Ellis, 25-0, on Oct. 29.

Football Starts In Junior High

Football fundamentals were taught early at Hays High as the Junior High got a full season of practice last fall. They played but one competitive game and came out on the losing end as Russell won by a score of 27-7.

Munsell tipped it in, in spite of double guarding.

Indians Place Fifth In WCKL

The Indians started the season with a bang, winning their first three games over Stafford 39-34, Dec. 7; Ellis 38-37, Dec. 11; and Dodge City 53-42 Dec. 14, before losing a pre-Christmas game to Russell 57-46, Dec. 21.

Larned was the victor in the Indians' first game after the Christmas vacation, 53-45, on Jan. 4. The Cadets won a narrow 47-46 game on Jan. 11, before the Indians got back on the winning side with a victory of 42-40 over Great Bend on Jan. 15.

On Jan. 18 the Indians ran into a real hustling and hot shooting Pratt team and dropped the decision to them, 53-43. Ellis again was defeated by a score of 47-45, Jan. 22, and the Indians topped Ness City 45-30 in a March of Dimes benefit game Feb. 4.

Starting the second round in a tie for third place the Indians defeated Stafford 56-43 for the second win of the season over the Trojans on Feb. 1.

Dodge City interrupted the Indians wins on Feb. 5 by winning a game that was more a comedy of errors than a basketball game. Both teams repeatedly threw the ball away and missed easy shots. The score ended 38-34.

In one of the most exciting games of the season the Indians lost to Russell 45-41 on Feb. 8, after playing rings around them the first half and leading them by 9 points at the half. Larned won a 48-44 conquest on Feb. 15, and then the Indians got revenge for the one point loss to the Cadets by trimming them 45-32 on Feb. 18. Again on Feb. 22 the Braves lost another WCKL game to Great Bend by a score of 44-33. Due to the advantage in height, the Indians fell to the Pratt Greenbacks 68-55 on Feb. 29.

In the Class A sub-regional tournament the Indians won from Ness City 47-35 and Victoria 43-37 but were defeated by Russell 55-41 in the finals.

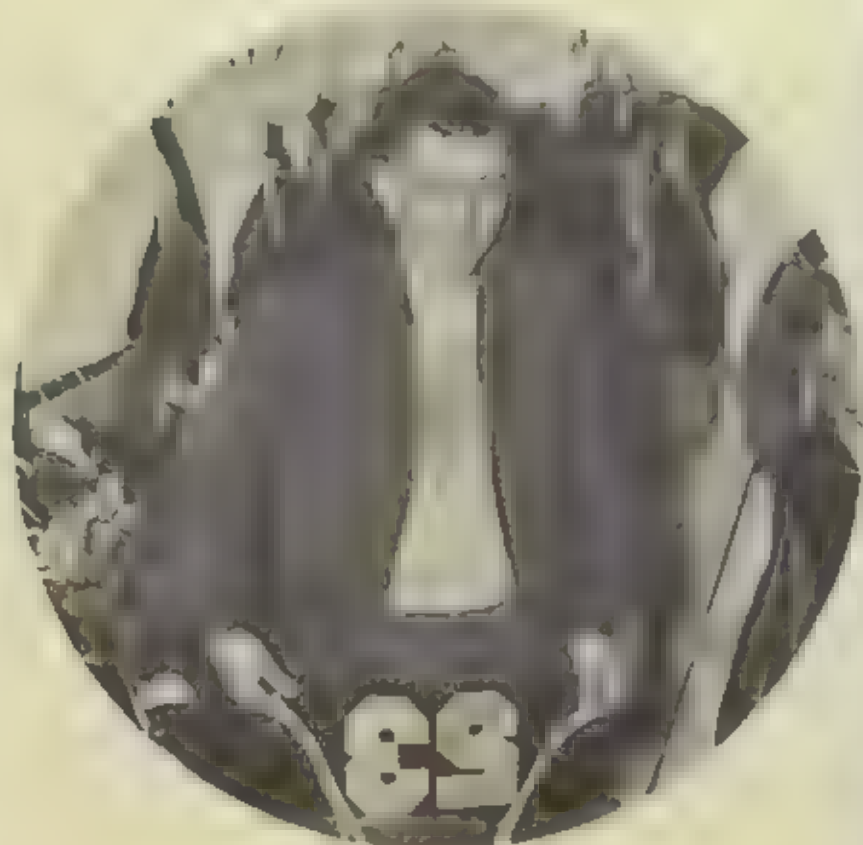

The WCK league standings were Russell, Dodge City, Pratt, Larned, Hays, Great Bend, Stafford.

Papooses Have Winning Season

Under the coaching of Mac McKee, the "B" squad finished their season with 8 wins and 6 losses. Wins were over Ellis, 44-38, Dec. 11; Cadets, 40-33, Jan. 11; Pratt 40-38, Jan. 18; Ellis, 41-30, Jan. 22; Stafford, 54-45, Feb. 1; Larned, 49-43, Feb. 15; Cadets, 44-39, Feb. 18; Great Bend, 35-27, Feb. 22. Losses were to Stafford, 37-46, Dec. 7; Russell 31-48, Dec. 21; Larned, 32-53, Jan. 4; Great Bend, 21-25, Jan. 15; Russell, 39-44, Feb. 25; Pratt, 35-49, Feb. 29.

Outstanding players for the "B" squad were Dan Johnson, Bob Urban, Jim Casper, Don Meske and Ralph Pfeifer.

Freshmen Have Undefeated Season

The freshman basketball team was coached by Jack Johnson to an undefeated season of 9 wins and no losses.

Victories were over Ellis 28-26, Dec. 11; Cadets 28-25, Dec. 14; La Crosse 60-26, Jan. 8; Russell 38-26, Jan. 15; Cadets 43-30, Jan. 26; La Crosse 43-22, Jan. 29; Smith Center 53-24, Feb. 2; Ellis 64-43, Fe. 12; and Russell 24-23 on Feb. 19.

The teams leading scorers for the season were John Floyd with 95 points, Gene McCurdy with 90, David Harris with 43, Jimmy Maska, who played in only five games, had 37, and Don Neely playing in six games accumulated 31.

Jumping beans were a steady diet for Gene McCurdy and Lester Ensign, but it paid off in baskets.

Dear Sandra,
My rats off to a grand gal. It has been fun at noon hour listening to you guys.
You are a swell gal
Best of everything!
Patty Palmer

Dear Sandra,
I've enjoyed watching you in grade gym class. You are almost a better volley ball player
than I. Love ya.
Corky Lee

Dear Sandra,
It's been nice knowing you. I hope we can get better acquainted next year.
Lots of luck to such a swell girl.
Mary Jane Dargatzis

Good luck
you
Arnold

Sandra,
I'm very happy to know you and very well.
Best of luck
